Request for Deferral:

Awaiting decision of Supreme Court decision in the wake of the PTO circuit court ruling 'in re Bilski' which contended that computer (e.g., machine) must be part of the claims. The final decision now rests with the Supreme Court, which could delay an official resolution for many months/years.

I believe that an "article of Manufacture" (e.g., deeds of trust for housing) is the correct category (a physical object that qualifies as merchandise). A process is a weaker category.
